

Labelling and claims in the pet food sector

Description

Changes in EU legislation and regulations for the labelling and claims in pet food are finally implemented since September 2011. What are the practical consequences of this change. Claims are often very important with these products. Which claims are you allowed to use and when? This course offers an excellent opportunity to acquire and apply thorough knowledge in a short period of time.

The following subjects are dealt with in this course: - changes in Regulation (EC) 767/2009 and Regulation (EC) 1831/2003 - use claims - division and categories of feed materials and additives - general required labelling regulations - specific labelling regulations for 'feed supplements and care products' and pet food - compiling labels (training)
