1. INTRODUCTION

Various GMP⁺ standards permit a participant who produces compound feeds or feed materials to provide a guarantee for a non-GMP⁺-certified intermediary.

This appendix sets further requirements for this guarantee.

2. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE INTERMEDIARY GUARANTEE

A participant who produces animal feed may provide a guarantee for a non-certified intermediary, if he:

- a. delivers to the livestock farmer via this intermediary
- b. delivers the majority of the products to be sold by the intermediary
- c. guarantees that all¹ compound feeds and feed materials which the intermediary sells are produced in accordance with the GMP⁺ standard B1
- d. guarantees that the intermediary will not change any labels or accompanying documents and will not do any interim storage in bulk or bulk transport
- e. guarantees that the other activities carried out by the intermediary are carried out in accordance with the requirements of the GMP⁺ standard B1 (such as storage of bags, vermin control, administration, recall)
- f. determines the amount of the guarantee in a contract with the intermediary
- g. maintains a list of intermediaries and compound feeds / feed materials for whom he provides a guarantee and informs the certification body of any changes within one month
- h. guarantees that the broker makes the USBs of his customers available to the participant if there is an incident

¹ In addition to compound feed and feed materials from the manufacturer providing the guarantee, this also applies to the use of compound feed or feed materials from other GMP⁺-certified manufacturers.
