

Scheme changes GMP+ FSA module

Document	Change content
GMP+ A2	Chapter 2	Definitions are added for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Former foodstuff (intended for use as feed)</li> <li>- Sealed loading compartments</li> </ul>
GMP+ BA4	Chapter 2.2.	Requirements for the maximum batch size are aligned with the legal requirements from Reg. (EU) No 183/2005.
	Chapter 2.2., Table 4	Requirements for monitoring of blended fats are aligned with the legal requirements from Reg. (EU) No 183/2005.
GMP+ BA7	Annex 1	The following products can be excluded from the scope of GMP+ BA7 when they are produced with / derived from fatty acids from splitting of vegetable oil. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 13.6.2 Fatty acids esterified with glycerol</li> <li>• 13.6.3 Mono di and triglycerides of fatty acids</li> <li>• 13.6.4 Salts of fatty acids</li> <li>• 13.6.9 Mono-and diglycerides of fatty acids esterified with organic acids</li> <li>• 13.6.10 Sucrose esters of fatty acids</li> <li>• 13.6.11 Sucroglycerides of fatty acids</li> </ul>
GMP+ BA10	Chapter 3.4.2	Designation, indicating accepted NAO companies, is updated
	Chapter 3.6	Requirement is added that an external transport by rail does not have to be certified. This is in line with requirement in GMP+ B4 Transport.
	Chapter 3.8	Requirements for analysis of mercury and fluorine in feed additives and premixtures are updated
	Chapter 3.8	Acceptance of several laboratory quality assurance systems will cease: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ISO 9001 certified laboratories</li> <li>• Laboratories with other quality assurance systems then GMP+ B10 or ISO17025</li> </ul>
	Chapter 4.2	By-products from the oil- and fat industry which cannot be purchased under a gatekeeper protocol are specified in more clear way
	Chapter 4.4.1 Chapter 4.4.2	Clarification of the check of 3 previous loads